

Grammar exercises

1 Underline the correct pronoun in each of the following sentences.

- 1 The connection is terrible. Can you / your / yours hear me?
- 2 In the second quarter we / us / our / ours met our production goals.
- 3 I'm sorry, sir. I can't give out you / your / yours medical records over the telephone.
- 4 Was there a call for I / me / my / mine while I was gone?
- 5 My niece cancelled she / her / hers appointment with the doctor.
- 6 This was created by skilled craftsmen in we / us / our / ours factory.
- 7 I have misplaced my mobile phone. Can I borrow you / your / yours?
- 8 Did he / him / his have any comments about today's session?
- 9 This document is for the personnel department. Can you pass it on to they / them / their / theirs?

2 Roland and April are discussing medical advice. Fill in the blanks with an impersonal pronoun. In some cases more than one answer is possible.

we      you      they      one

April: Medical authorities have advised everybody to get a flu shot. ■ They say this will reduce the number of flu cases this winter season. Aren't 2 _____ told this every year in the fall? 3 _____ would think that everyone knows that by now 4 _____ should get a shot, especially the people with breathing problems and the elderly.

Roland: Well, I think 5 _____ should be advising us. Some people might forget that a flu shot is readily available 6 _____ never know what viruses are coming in the winter. 7 _____ can't be too careful.

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.

テキスト全文はレッスン受講時に担当講師よりお受け取りください。