

C Grammar exercises

1 Underline the correct comparative or superlative adjective.

- 1 This is the more exciting / the most exciting advance in cellphone design in years.
- 2 Of the two guesthouses, I think you should stay at the cheaper / the cheapest one in order to keep costs down.
- 3 I think Saturday would be the less convenient / the least convenient day of the week for a meeting.
- 4 That was the more productive / the most productive talk we have had in a long time.
- 5 I prefer the more flexible / the most flexible working hours that I have in my job here at MaxiTech.
- 6 We don't have much to discuss. This will be a shorter / the shortest meeting than last month's.
- 7 We have had fewer / the fewest complaints about noise since we used carpets to soundproof the walls.
- 8 The faster / The fastest way to get to the city from here is to take the subway.

2 Use the adjectives in parentheses to make comparative or superlative adverbs and fill in the blanks.

- 1 Do you know which employee travels the farthest (far) each week?
- 2 Of all the creative designs we received, this one shows the product_____ (effective).
- 3 I am trying to save money now, so I am dining out_____ (frequent) these days.
- 4 No machine operates_____ (noisy) than the printer in school.
- 5 Rowena has been working_____ (hard) to solve this problem.

3 Find the mistakes in the comparative or superlative adjectives and adverbs and correct them.

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.

テキスト全文はレッスン受講時に担当講師よりお受け取りください。