

No Other Mom by Alce M. Sentones

Life is full of beautiful things
A baby's smile to brighten up my day

Hearing a cat purr on a sunny afternoon
A hearty laugh and a cherry smile

Beautiful things come in pairs
In threes and fours and dozens as well

But one thing stays the same
Mother's caring and thoughtful ways

Shining brightly, steady and pure
No other love like Mother
No other Mom

Answer the following questions.

1. Whose smile can brighten a day?
2. How is a mother's love describe in the poem?
