

Holidays

Reading

There are many holidays that we celebrate every year. Christmas, New Year and Thanksgiving are important holidays in many countries. Most of the time, when it is a holiday, people do not go to work and students don't go to school. Many people are happy when it is a holiday.

Dialogue 1

A: Are you going to the Flower Festival today?
B: Yes, I am. It's a wonderful event!
A: Can I go there with you? I want to be in that festival, too.
B: Sure. You can also bring your friends with you.
A: Oh, really? I'm very excited!
B: We have to leave at 8 o'clock in the morning to catch the opening ceremony.
A: Alright. See you then!
B: Okay. See you!

Dialogue 2

A: Hi, Rose! I heard you are going to get married.
B: Yes, that's right!
A: Who is the lucky guy?
B: He is American and he works as a journalist.
A: Great! When is your wedding?
B: It will be in June, next year.
A: That would be great! I wish you all the best!
B: Thank you so much.

Expressions

It's a wonderful event!

It's a fantastic show!

It's an great movie!

Words and Phrases

holiday
festival ceremony

celebrate excited lucky country catch journalist