

Life Choices

Read along silently as you listen to a natural conversation.

ANN: Ruth! This report's due tomorrow. What are you dreaming about?

RUTH: You know, I wish I'd gone to medical school instead of business school.

ANN: What? Since when have you been interested in medicine?

RUTH: Well, when I read about doctor shortages and terrible diseases, I think about how I could have made a difference in this world, an important difference... instead of doing these useless reports!

ANN: Well, you're young. Maybe it's not too late.

RUTH: Think so?

ANN: Sure. But do you think maybe you could get your head out of the clouds and get back on task now?

RUTH: Sorry about that. You can count on me.

Restate each of the following statements in another way.

1. "I could have made a difference in this world."
2. "Maybe it's not too late."

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.
