

The World's Most Dangerous Tree!

Vocabulary:

canopy - a covering, usually of fabric, supported on poles or suspended above a bed, throne, exalted personage, or sacred object.

innocuous (adjective)- not harmful or injurious; harmless heed- to give careful attention to:

He did not heed the warning.

strewn-to let fall in separate pieces or particles over a surface; scatter or sprinkle:
to strew seed in a garden bed.

scald - to burn or affect painfully with or as if with hot liquid or steam novice -a person who is new to the circumstances, work, etc., in which he or she is placed; beginner

Article: The World's Most Dangerous Tree!

You can see the whole lesson from your teacher, please ask them to send it to you before the class.

テキスト全文はレッスン受講時に担当講師よりお受け取りください。